

Fairfax County Community Groups
 COVID-19 Health and Safety Utilization Agreement for Winter 2021-22 Gym Use

Neighborhood and Community Services (NCS) is committed to enforcing the following requirements and conditions that allow community use of Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS) Therefore, it is necessary for all groups using Fairfax County Public School gyms to comply with the following:

- A. Masks must be worn at all times by spectators, coaches, referees, players not actively engaged in physical activity, and anyone present in the gym regardless of vaccination status. Players actively engaged in physical activity are not required to wear masks.

- B. If any of the group’s players, coaches or referees have reported that they have COVID-19, the group representative or his or her designee, must immediately report the positive case to the Fairfax County Health Department using the following link to assist the Health Department with contact tracing.
 - VA Code requires outbreaks (2 or more cases) to be reported to directly and immediately to the Health Department. The Fairfax County Health Department has requested that individual cases of reportable diseases are also reported immediately to the Health Department.
